

RILM Abstracts of Music Literature (1967-present)

From hip hop to Händel, from ethnomusicology to music therapy, from elementary music education to advanced music theory, RILM Abstracts of Music Literature covers music research from 1967 to the present.

RILM includes:

- Over 700,000 records, with over 40,000 records added annually
- Citations for publications in 214 languages, originating in 155 countries
- Sound recordings and motion pictures presenting results of scholarly research

Various types of publications and media covered by RILM include:

- Collections of essays
- Conference proceedings
- Critical editions of music
- Digital media
- Dissertations
- Journal articles
- Monographs
- Online resources
- Reference materials
- Reviews
- Technical drawings of instruments

RILM Retrospective Abstracts of Music Literature (1835 - 1966)

RILM Retrospective Abstracts of Music Literature is a new bibliography of nearly 20,000 records for music articles, collections, and books published before 1967.

- Music-related articles published in conference proceedings from 1835 through 1966
- Articles in Festschriften celebrating music scholars from 1840 to 1966
- Articles in anniversary volumes published in honor of musicians, composers and institutions back to the 18th century
- Journal articles and other publications added on a monthly basis

Subject coverage includes:

- Composition
- Dramatic Arts
- Dance Studies
- Jazz Studies
- Organology
- Performance Practice
- Popular Music Studies
- And much more

For more information, or to request a free trial, contact your EBSCO Sales Representative

Phone: 1-800-653-2726

Email: information@ebSCO.com

www.ebsco.com

EBSCO

rilm
Répertoire International de Littérature Musicale
International Repertory of Music Literature
Internationales Repertorium der Musikliteratur