

CHINA'S RISE AND ITS IMPLICATIONS FOR U.S. FOREIGN POLICY AND THE WORLD

When: 6. 1. 2015 / 18:00

Where: Conference Room

Speaker: Prof. Robert Sutter

Elliot School of International Relations, The George Washington University, United States)

The rise of China is inevitably changing Asia. China's growing power, both economic and military, will have a strong impact not only on the region but on the world as such. At the same time, the United States announced its return to the region in a form of American Pivot. Will the concepts of "China's Rise" and "American Pivot" compete or co-exist? Will they clash or is there a window of opportunity for a closer cooperation? And what are the consequences for the United States, the European Union and the world as such?
