Ultra-rich are opting out of society while controlling it

The past 72 hours have seen our political establishment operating at a level of panic rarely equalled in postwar history. Britain's prime minister has had yanked out of him the most intimate financial details. The Guardian | UK | Mon, 11 Apr 2016

Pressure on Cameron for tax answers

Companies will be held criminally liable if they fail to stop their employees from facilitating tax evasion, David Cameron will tell MPs, as he uses a parliamentary statement to defend himself after one of the most difficult weeks of his premiership. The prime minister has been under pressure over his handling of revelations about The Guardian | UK | Mon, 11 Apr 2016

HMRC chief was partner at Cameron fund lawyers

The boss of Revenue & Customs (HMRC), the government department overseeing a £10m inquiry into the Panama Papers, was a partner at a top City law firm that acted for Blairmore Holdings and other offshore companies named in the leak. Edward Troup, executive chair of HMRC since April, is a former partner at Simmons & The Guardian | UK | Mon, 11 Apr 2016
