Jednoduché vyhledávání: <http://www.wipo.int/romarin/>

The screenshot shows the ROMARIN search interface. A red circle highlights the 'Search in' section on the left, which includes checkboxes for 'Registrations no longer in force', 'Applications/requests being processed', and 'Active registrations'. A red box highlights the text 'Možnost výběru operátoru a polí.' (Possibility of selecting operator and fields). Red arrows point from this box to the 'AND' operator dropdowns and the 'Search in' dropdown menu. The 'Search in' dropdown menu is open, showing a list of search fields: International Registration Number, Holder Name, Representative, Mark, Vienna Classification, Nice Classification, Goods and services (English), Goods and services (French), Goods and services (Spanish), Office of Origin, Basic Application Number, Basic Registration Number, Designated Contracting Parties, Registration Date, Expiration Date, and Designated Contracting Parties. The 'Mark' field is selected. The search results table shows the following data:

WIPO International Classifications

Applicants for national or international IP protection are required to determine whether their creation is new or owned/claimed by someone else. To determine this, huge amounts of information must be searched. International classifications facilitate such searches by organizing information concerning inventions, trademarks and industrial designs into indexed, manageable structures for easy retrieval.
