Below the search bar is a section titled "Multilingual Translations Searching - Select your language:" with radio buttons for various languages: العربية, 中文, Deutsch, English (selected), Español, Français, 日本語, 한국어, Português, and Русский. To the right of these buttons is a "Translator" link with the text "Translations powered by Microsoft".

At the bottom, there's a world map and a section titled "INTERACTIVE MAP" with the text "Click on region to zoom in on participating countries."

Certain types of infrastructure--critical infrastructure (CI)--play vital roles in underpinning our economy, security and way of life. These complex and often interconnected systems have become so ubiquitous and essential to day-to-day life that they are easily taken for granted. Often it is only when the important services provided by such infrastructure
