Cesta k oborovým bránám

The screenshot shows the TIB Portal website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the TIB logo and links for ORDER, SEARCH, LEARNING, PUBLISHING, ABOUT US, and RESEARCH AT TIB. A search bar is prominently displayed in the center, with the text "Search for specialist literature and information". Below the search bar, there is a checkbox labeled "LIMIT THE SEARCH TO THE TIB CATALOGUE" and links for "DIRECT ACCESS TO THE LIBRARY CATALOGUE", "TIB-AV-PORTAL", and "FURTHER CATALOGUES & DATABASES".

Below the navigation bar, the page title "Subject-specific search" is visible. A red box highlights the "Subject gateways" link in the left sidebar. A red arrow points from this link to the "Subject-specific search" section. This section contains the text: "Offers and further information about your subject area" and "You can use the subject gateways to search specifically for specialist literature and to gain direct access to our electronic offers in your subject. Find out who can help if you have any questions, and gain further information and advice on searching for literature and producing scientific work."

Below this text, there are six subject-specific search options arranged in a 3x2 grid:

- Architecture
- Civil Engineering
- Biochemistry
- Mechanical Engineering
- Mathematics
- Medical Technology

Influence Maximization in Social Networks: A Survey of Behaviour-Aware Methods

(English)

Free access

Zareie, Ahmad / Sakellariou, Rizos

2021

Preprint / Electronic Resource

Social networks have become an increasingly common abstraction to capture the interactions of individual users in a number of everyday activities and applications. As a result, the analysis of such networks has attracted lots of attention in the literature. Among the topics of interest, a key problem relates to identifying so-called influential users
