The uses of (digital) literacy (English)

McDougall, Julian / Readman, Mark / Wilkinson, Philip

In: Learning, Media and Technology ; 43, 3 ; 263-279 ; 2018

ISSN: 1743-9884, 1743-9892

Article (Journal) / Electronic Resource

This article shares research facilitated by a multinational technology provider, converging mobile networked technology (tablets) used across school and home, a technology enhanced community 'third space' providing workshops for students aged 6–9 with their parents/carers. The approach taken avoids the instrumental measurement of functional digital literacy competences, but instead seeks
